

As a retired couple who love to do road trips large and small, our satellite radio has been very helpful to have. We would like to see the weather and traffic reporting expanded to cover even more areas! It helps us to make our trips safe and enjoyable since we can make last minute adjustments with information from XM during our drive.